

DCI
17 May 1984

We cannot be associated with a policy which appropriates $300 billion for defense against the Soviet Union while refusing to provide one ten-thousandths of that amount to continue support to people who, in reliance on our support, put their lives on the line to resist Soviet-backed aggression and oppression in our immediate neighborhood.

SECRET